This Day is Mine . . .

This day is mine to dream things that never were and say why not.

Or to wonder if I turn back . . . what then?

Experiencing triumph or defeat

This day is mine to believe impossible dreams come true.

Mine to become aware of the beauty of nature and to realize beauty is its own excuse for being.

WE GOT YOU WHERE WE WANT YOU

Today is mine to see victory in defeat.

GARDNER-WEBB

Today is mine to see in every stranger a potential friend.

This day is mine uniquely a life within itself—

to love and laugh and live.

This book is dedicated to the glory of God

ORGANIZATIONS

EDITOR'S NOTE: In the 1975 "WEB" I have attempted to give precedence to people and places not to patterns ordinarily expected in traditional yearbook content. Due to a lack of photographers, and difficulty in scheduling pictures we could not include group shots of all the clubs. The content of those pages instead has been devoted to candid shots of people and places. Desiring to make the content of this book more appealing to the individual student by using candid shots instead of repetitious group shots and attempting to be fair to all clubs concerned I have omitted all club pictures. I express my sincere apologies to all members and sponsors of all those organizations.

IMPRESSIONS

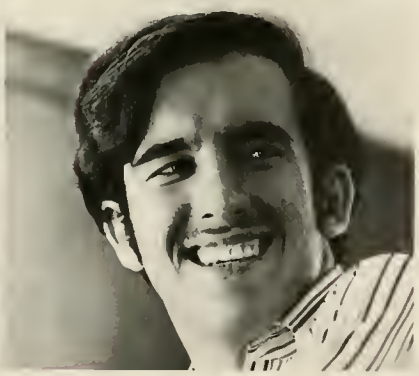
Impressions of faces . . . not merely I. D. pictures nor class section panel pictures but impressions of unique faces. Each is different . . . each is individual . . . each is a mirror of the mood of the person within. Each reflection of a face that we have captured or portrays a different area of our daily lives.

Gardner-Webb is faces for without the them it would just be a campus not a college community. Impressions of faces . . . without them the "1975 WEB" would be nothing but pages. Impressions . . . is dedicated to the hope that you will look at faces and discover unique individuals within these reflections.



HUMOR IS THE HARMONY OF THE HEART. O. JERROLD

AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH AND DWELT AMONG US. . . . FOR GOD, TO ME, IT SEEMS IS A VERB, NOT A NOUN.

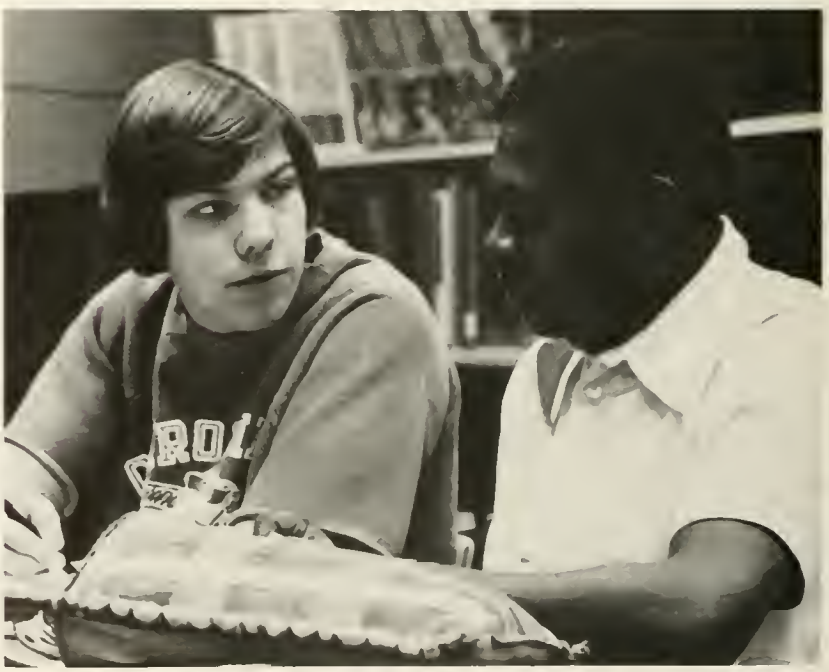
You are in....



FOR NO MAN IS AN ISLAND
AND NO MAN STANDS ALONE.
EACH MAN'S JOY IS JOY TO ME,
EACH MAN'S GRIEF IS MY OWN. . .

IN THE NOISE OF THE SILENCE,
SOME KIND OF MESSAGE COMES THROUGH TO YOU . . . .

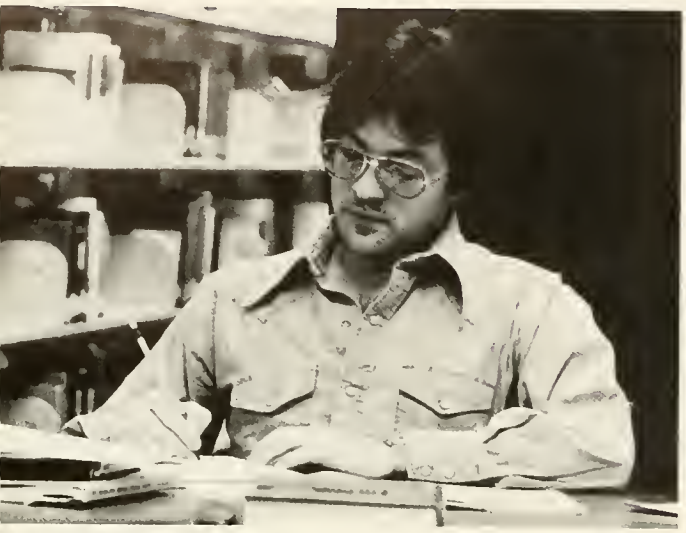
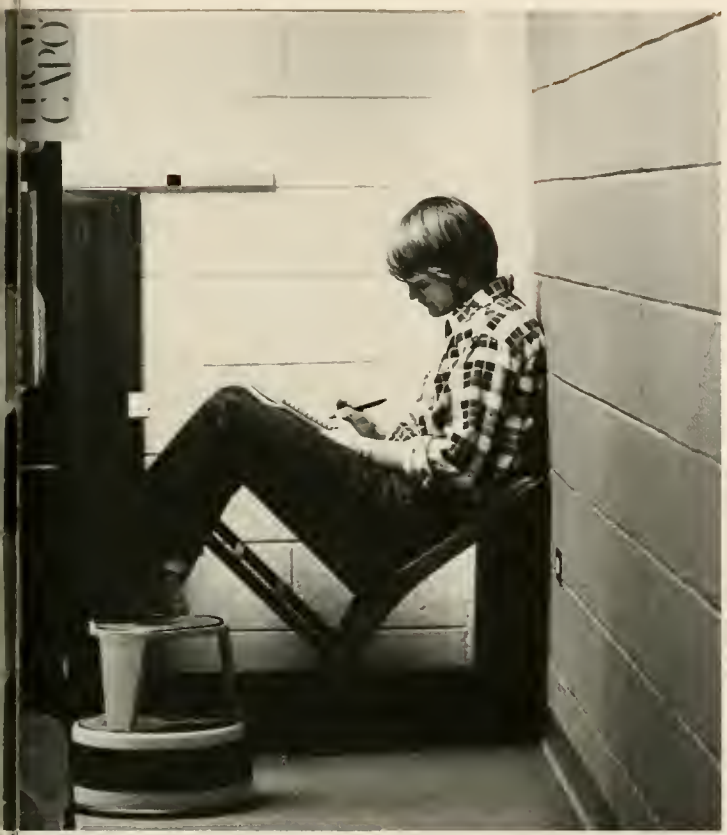
SOME KIND OF MESSAGE COMES THROUGH.



WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER



THE THING THAT HATH BEEN, IS THAT WHICH SHALL BE;

AND THAT WHICH IS DONE IS THAT WHICH SHALL BE DONE:

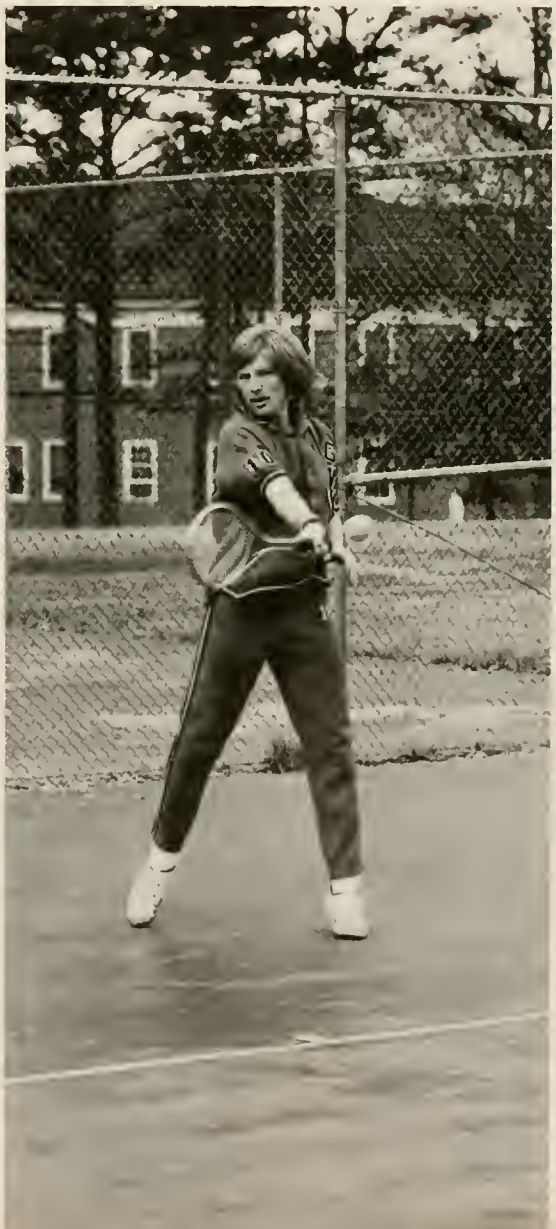
1975 TENNIS TEAM

The Tennis team ended their season with three straight victories over Lenoir Rhyne, Mars Hill, and UNC-Asheville to have one of the best records ever recorded for a Gardner-Webb tennis team. The netters finished with an even 6-6 mark and had seven matches rained out. This year the team showed a tremendous fall practice playing Wofford, Wingate, and Pfeiffer College.

The netters are led by Randy Alexander, Bert Brimberry, and Lee Clayton. Bob Decker, David Watson, and Tim Hildreth will also see valuable action. The netters were hurt bad at the first of the season due to the loss of Tim Gregory and Steve Sloan. David Watson and Abe Jamshidi will add to the team's strength. The tennis team coach is Jim Taylor

LEADING NETTERS DISPLAY

STRENGTH



The Gardner-Webb College golfers are expecting a winning season. The team will play five tournaments during the spring; Elon Invitational, Red Foxx Tournament; Furman Invitational, and the District Tournament. The Gardner-Webb team members for this year are: Zim Zimmerman, Jim Franklin, Rodney Morrow, Charles Mack, Dan Phillips, Joel Lineberger, Jim Hunsuck, Rick Stephens, and Lee Abrams.

G-W Professor Receives Duke Research Grant

Mr. James H. Rash, art professor at Gardner-Webb College, received a research grant from Duke Power this past summer. Mr. Rash has glazes. The material he has been working with is waste products and native minerals. He first began experimenting with wood ash in of Duke Power's Cliffside Stream Station, and Mr. Wayne Beaver, a company chemist, made some encouraging discoveries by experi-

IN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF 1975 NURSING GRADUATES

One test of a good yearbook is how consistently it follows the theme. Pursuing that theme I will begin by saying "This day is mine . . ." Today is mine to acknowledge the inexpressible debt of appreciation I owe to Chappie, my photographer and only staff member.

The original plan of this page included a candid photo of Chappie. The plan didn't work because Chappie was always too busy taking pictures and there was nobody that could take the picture I wanted of him.

For all the willingness to sacrifice long hours to do my dark room work without complaining and for all the cooperation you have given me in faithfully taking pictures and for always understanding the weight of the responsibility as well as the many frustrations and problems, for being able to envision my dreams of what I wanted in the pictures and for giving a part of yourself to make my ultimate dream of a completed yearbook a reality . . . I thank you Chappie.

For allowing me to come to appreciate such excellent quality in photography, for giving me both a treasured friend and talented photographer in Chappie — I thank you, Lord . . . thank you for loving me.

IF I HAD BUT ONE WISH GRANTED TO ME,
IF I HAD JUST ONE DREAM; IF I HAD THE POWER TO MAKE THIS DREAM COME TRUE,
I'D HAVE THE WHOLE WORLD KNOW HIM LIKE I DO.

I WISH YOU ALL WOULD LOVE HIM LIKE I LOVE HIM,
I WISH YOU ALL COULD SEE HIM LIKE I DO;
I WISH YOU ALL COULD FEEL HIS HOLY PRESENCE,
I WISH YOU ALL COULD KNOW HIM LIKE I KNOW HIM.

IF YOU COULD ONLY TALK TO HIM ONE TIME
I'M SURE YOUR TWISTED LIVES WOULD BE ALL THRU;
IF YOU WOULD FEEL THE FULLNESS OF HIS LOVE,
THEN YOU'D BE FREE TO SHARE IT LIKE I DO.

I WISH YOU ALL WOULD LOVE HIM LIKE I LOVE HIM,
I WISH YOU ALL COULD SEE HIM LIKE I DO;
I WISH YOU ALL COULD FEEL HIS HOLY PRESENCE,
I WISH YOU ALL COULD KNOW HIM LIKE I KNOW HIM.

An editorial page in a yearbook is both an ending and a beginning. It is the ending of another academic year. For those students whose college careers are coming to an end it is a beginning . . . the morning of our lives.

My sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Boyd for being my sponsor and to Mrs. Poston for being patient with me; to Wayne and Wofford for help in emergencies; to friends who have supported me with their prayers and to many people whose names I will not try to list that helped with small but important jobs.

"Thank you" can never express my gratitude to Chappie for such dedicated work; to Ann for sharing my dream in a quiet way that helped me not to give up; to Rosie for being a sympathetic, loyal friend and all I needed in a roommate, and to Dan for helping to make the responsibility of my load light by always listening, understanding me and believing in me.

Thoreau said, "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

Each student at Gardner-Webb is a unique individual having different goals in life, different reasons for being here, different experiences that have shaped their lives. I have not attempted to fill this book with endless copy writing that told the story of this year for the simple reason that the year is a unique story to every student.

In these pictures we have included reflections of events and captured mirrors of faces clinging to the hope that the memories held within the pages of the 1975 WEB will be meaningful to every student.

I offer no evaluation of the year by trying to say what happened nor any analysis of whether or not it was a good year. In acknowledgement of the sound of a different drummer in my own life when doing a yearbook was impossible for me . . . Holy God, I heard your voice saying "I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? — for I the Lord thy God will help thee." The first plans of the yearbook through endless hours required to finish every page were all inspired by that voice.

I do not dream of the honor of men's praise. I do not dread the adversity of men's criticism. In spite of imperfections and human error each page has been done in response to the voice of God's only Beloved Son, and this book is dedicated to the glory of God for every page that He has done.
